HOUSTON AT A GLANCE

KEY ECONOMIC INDICATORS

Over the past 10 years ('11 to '21), Houston has added more than 1,150,600 residents. The region has maintained a trend established in the '90s of adding 900,000 or more residents each decade.

AVIATION

The Houston Airport System (HAS) handled 3.5 million passengers in January '22, up from 2.0 million in January '21. This marked the fourth consecutive month with international passenger volume exceeding 600,000.

UNEMPLOYMENT

The unemployment rate for metro Houston was 5.5 percent in January '22, up from 4.8 percent in December '21 but down from 7.9 percent in January '21. The Texas rate was 4.8 percent, up from 4.2 percent in December but down from 7.0 percent in January of last year. The U.S. rate was 4.4 percent, up from 3.7 percent in December but down from 6.8 percent last January. The rates are not seasonally adjusted.

SALES TAX

Sales and use tax collections for the 12 most populous Houston-area cities¹ totaled $1.1 billion in the 12 months ending January '22, up 18.5 percent from $955.2 million for the same period a year ago. Collections for the month of January totaled $88.0 million, up 16.9 percent from $75.2 million in January '21.

FOREIGN TRADE

The Houston-Galveston Customs District handled foreign trade valued at $273.1 billion in '21, up from 47.6 percent from $194.3 billion in '20. A jump in total tonnage and in the value of crude, a major Houston export, led to the growth.

HOME SALES

Single-family home sales jumped 22.9 percent with 7,372 units sold compared to 5,997 in February of 2021, according to the Houston Association of Realtors. Compared to the last "normal" February ('20), the sales volume was up 23.3 percent. With fewer housing options available for purchase, consumers placed heavy demand on single- family rental homes in February.

VEHICLE SALES

Houston-area auto dealers sold 24,248 new vehicles in January '22, a decrease of 7.1 percent from January '21, according to TexAuto Facts, published by InfoNation, Inc. of Houston. Truck/ SUV sales fell 3.3 percent compared to January '21 and car sales dropped 19.2 percent.

The market is composed of nine counties: Harris, Galveston, Brazoria, Fort Bend, Chambers, Montgomery, Austin, Liberty and Waller. The Gulf of Mexico, which borders the metro to the southeast, provides access to markets around the world via the Port of Houston, making it a prime location for exports. Local industries have diversified from oil to technology and healthcare. Many companies provide goods and services for the large population growth, which has sprawled, primarily to the north and west. The city of Houston is the largest in the metro with 2.3 million residents.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
